Local Schools Help Homeless Charity

Bloxham, Tudor Hall and Sibford schools have all made a much needed contribution to the funds of local homeless charity, BYHP. Bloxham raised nearly £900 with a Gift Fair, Tudor Hall £860 with their Gift Fair and Carol Concert and Sibford School held a Sergeant Pepper evening, donating the £350 proceeds to BYHP.

The funds will be used to part fund a healthy eating project, as often Young People who have been homeless have little or no access to cooking facilities to enable them to prepare a healthy meal. The project, to be held at BYHP's Drop in will include how to provide a nutritional meal on a low budget, promoting food hygiene and healthier lifestyles.

Pictured is Lee Ferris receiving a cheque from Rani Tandon at Tudor Hall School. Lee, aged 22 has been through BYHP's programme twice after being made homeless when he was 16 and again at 17. With BYHP's support he now has a flat and has become a volunteer for the project

BYHP supports homeless young people between the ages of 16 – 25 who have been made homeless through no fault of their own, often fleeing abuse, violence, bereavement or eviction. A Banbury based registered charity, BYHP has helped over 400 young displaced people in the last 12 months in Banbury and the surrounding areas.
